

Anne Frank House
Free2choose
A practical example

www.free2choose.eu

Barry van Driel: barry@iaie.org

International Diversity Summer School
Vienna, July 2007

Mission Statement Anne Frank House

Key part of mission statement:

To contribute to a world without discrimination. A world characterized by mutual respect and tolerance.

Free2choose 2005-2006-2007

- Starting point: European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (ECHR) from 1950
- 10 standard film clips / Each country also creates own clips
- The film clips show concrete examples of frictions of rights and freedoms
- At moment 11 countries: Austria, Czech Republic, Denmark, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Netherlands, Poland, Sweden, UK
- 55 debates
- Main target group: young people (age 15 – 18)
- Formal and non-formal settings

Plans for 2008

- More countries: all EU-member states?
- New (local) clips focused on intercultural dialogue, closer to the daily life of young Europeans
- Instruction manual for (young) debate moderators

Evaluation/Results

- Harmony model versus confrontation
- Create safe space for debate
- Intercultural cooperative methods needed for all voices to be heard
- Xenophobia, Homophobia, Islamophobia and anti-Semitism among youth
- Not all film clips appropriate for all contexts

